

Connections' Mission Statement

Connections is a program of Ferry County committed to eliminating homelessness, and domestic and sexual violence in the homes, relationships, and communities of Ferry County. We provide safe, accessible, and confidential services to individuals affected by these issues. We are dedicated to social change through community education and outreach.

Make a difference... Volunteer!

Ferry County—Connections

provides services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, victims of other types of crime and the homeless throughout Ferry County.

Why Volunteer?

- Experience a new career field.
- Receive work experience.
- Make a difference in people's lives.
- All Volunteers will receive a reference letter.

A volunteer experience should be beneficial for both the volunteer and the agency. Connections will work with you to make it positive and rewarding for us both.

Connections Services

- * 24 hour Crisis Intervention
- * Information & Referral
- * Therapy
- * Personal, Legal & Medical Advocacy
- * Safety Planning
- * Homeless Services
- * Community Education
- * Prevention Activities

Support

The volunteer coordinator will work with you to determine your interests, and provide ongoing support and supervision.

Training

Volunteer advocates are required to attend an initial 40 hour training. Also continuing training hours are required each year. Connections will provide all necessary training.

Connections is certified to provide this training by the Washington Coalition of Sexual Assault Programs. Attendees will receive a certificate of completion.

Volunteers not providing direct advocacy services to victims are not required to attend the full 40 hour trainings.

Training will be tailored to the volunteer opportunity you choose.
